

C&G Promotes Thomas Shortland to Counsel

Cohen & Gresser is pleased to announce that Thomas Shortland has been promoted to counsel in the firm's London office. "Congratulations to Tom on his well-deserved promotion, which is a reflection of his exceptional work, integrity, and commitment to our clients. Tom has been a key contributor to growing our UK litigation and investigations practices," said Jeffrey M Bronheim, Managing Partner of the firm's London office.

Tom advises on a broad range of commercial and business disputes, including English High Court litigation, international arbitration, internal investigations, and regulatory proceedings. Prior to joining C&G, Tom practiced for over eight years at Cleary Gottlieb Steen & Hamilton where, between 2015 and 2016, he was seconded to the Bribery & Corruption Division of the UK's Serious Fraud Office as an Investigative Lawyer.

About C&G's Litigation & Arbitration Group:

The Chambers and Legal 500-recognized attorneys in our Litigation & Arbitration group represent clients in a broad range of complex commercial, business, and financial disputes in key jurisdictions worldwide. We have substantial experience in antitrust and unfair competition, bankruptcy litigation and counseling, class action defense, commercial litigation, directors and officers litigation, employment, healthcare litigation, partnership disputes, products liability, real estate litigation, and securities litigation. In the UK, we have extensive experience representing clients, from first pleadings through to trial or settlement, in complex and high-value commercial matters before the English High Court, tribunals, or in arbitrations seated in England and/or governed by English law. In addition, we regularly represent clients in disputes involving proceedings in multiple jurisdictions including offshore jurisdictions, working closely with local counsel where required.

About C&G's White Collar Defense & Regulation Group:

C&G's Chambers and Legal 500-ranked White Collar Defense & Regulation group regularly represents clients in a wide variety of investigations, including market manipulation, securities fraud, insider trading, corruption/bribery, money laundering, OFAC, and FCPA investigations. Members of our cross-border team advise on major corporate internal investigations and handle proceedings before and in cooperation with a number of global regulatory bodies, including the Financial Conduct Authority (FCA) and Serious Fraud Office (SFO) in the UK; the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and the Department of Justice (DOJ) in the U.S.; and the financial market authority (AMF), the Banking Authority (ACPR), and the financial prosecutor (PNF) in France. In 2019 the group was selected for inclusion in the GIR 100, Global Investigation Review's annual guide to the world's leading law firms for investigations.
